

A Whole Lot of Titz N' Glitz
10.17.10

Post by Jenn – I was completely thrilled to shoot Titz'n Glitz this year! I had the most amazing night, and was honored to be a part of it. It's a one of a kind breast cancer fundraiser, raising money to help alleviate the financial stress for those fighting this disease. The women who spoke at the event were inspirational and helped me see what a difference Titz'n Glitz really makes. The decor, done by the talented Avril Mulholland of Update Events, was simply incredible ... pink lamps, pink lighting, pink everywhere! It truly suited the event (and also happens to be one of my favorite colours). One of the highlights of the event was definitely the Ariel Champagne Artists from Atlantic Cirque. After performing acrobatic acts, girls from Atlantic Cirque were suspended from the ceiling, serving champagne. I've never seen anything like it and it was awesome to capture. Other highlights included the wonderfully creative retro dance themed costumes, a live silk screen artist (who, during the event, created an amazing painting featuring guests), the "press a breast" canvas art auction, and an amazing energy that could be felt at every corner of the room throughout the night. It was contagious! Seeing as this was a women only event, Jeff had to put down the camera and stay home for the night, even though he wanted to shoot it just as much as I did. Maybe we'll see him there next year sporting a girly wig? A big congratulations to everyone who helped put this event together, it was certainly a night to remember!
