

What's Happening?

Diane Doiron / Herald Photo

Titz'n Glitz

Saskatchewan artist Brenda Sherring came to Halifax to create The Support Line, an installation of celebrity bras dipped in pink plaster and hung from clotheslines at the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia. About 500 women will attend tonight's fourth annual, sold-out, women-only Titz'n Glitz, a fundraiser for The Pink Rose Project that gives Nova Scotians diagnosed with breast cancer information to guide them through their illness.